

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the November 2nd is a clear example of a large media corporation attempting to sway the U.S. election through partisan programming.

While I do not in theory oppose the right of a station to broadcast as they see fit, clearly the classification of this unofficial campaign infomercial as "news" is as patently absurd as calling "Fahrenheit 9/11" a news program.

It is within your jurisdiction to block this broadcast, and I strongly urge you to do so in the interests of the integrity of broadcast standards in the lead up to election day.

Sincerely,

Talcott P. Langston
